We were honoured to have our work featured in this important article. See our earlier helpline data here

Our data on this abuse is described as “unique” as we are the only charity or organisation recording these hate crimes. We will continue to report on this important issue and will be publishing more reports based on our helpline data in the coming weeks and months.

People who need care are trapped in that situation; they cannot escape the hate. Please read about the amazing Ted Brown who is doing brilliant work on this issue and is an amazing inspiration, we are proud to help expose this abuse and will continue to challenge the systems that are failing to keep vulnerable people safe.
